

GLENVILLE STATE COLLEGE HOME GROWN INITIATIVE TEACHER EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The mission of Glenville State College's Home Grown Initiative Scholarship is to identify and recruit high school students interested in teaching, particularly those interested in subject areas most in-demand; to enhance progression, retention, and graduation of enrolled teacher candidates; and to enhance new teacher retention through a coordinated college and district mentoring program.

GLENVILLE
STATE COLLEGE

HOME GROWN SCHOLARSHIP FOR QUALIFIED TEACHER EDUCATION STUDENTS

Scholarship Requirements

Must be a newly enrolled, first year student at GSC and be from any West Virginia county public school.

Enroll in the BAED degree program with a major in the area identified as "high need" by home county school superintendent or designee.

Minimum 3.0 high school grade point average.

Minimum average ACT composite score of 20 or SAT composite score of 1020.

Must obtain recommendation from school superintendent or designee (Principal/Counselor).

Must complete student teaching in home county if possible.

Must be accepted into GSC's Department of Education.

Must reside in GSC campus housing per GSC guidelines.

Scan here to complete a student interest form:

Annual Scholarship Amount: $3,000*

Bachelor of Arts in Education degree with a major in:

Biological Science (9-Adult)

Chemistry (9-Adult)

Early Education (PreK-K)

Elementary Education (K-6)

English Education (5-9) or (5-Adult)

General Math - Algebra I (5-9)

General Science (5-9) or (5-Adult)

Music Education (PreK-Adult)

Mathematics (5-Adult)

Social Studies Education (5-9) or (5-Adult)

Special Education Multi-Categorical (K-6)

Scholarship is competitive with a maximum of 35 students accepted into the program annually

Scholarship Continuance

Continue successful progression within GSC's education courses with a 3.0 overall and program specific GPA

Participate in all Praxis preparation programs and pass Praxis basic skills and content-area exams

Participate in home county community service activities

Receive continued recommendation, each semester, by the Department of Education

Institutional Scholarship Awards cannot exceed full tuition and fees; Home Grown Scholarship can be awarded for a maximum of eight (8) semesters*

FOR MORE INFORMATION

admissions@glenville.edu

(304) 462-4128 | (800) 924-2010

