

Annual Scholarship Amount: $3,000*

GLENVILLE STATE COLLEGE

HOME GROWN

Teacher Education Scholarship Program

REQUIREMENTS

- ◆ Must be accepted into GSC’s Department of Education to be awarded a scholarship.
- ◆ Must be a newly enrolled first-year student at GSC and be from any West Virginia County public school.
- ◆ Enroll in the BAED degree program with a major in the area identified as “high need” by home county school superintendent or designee.
- ◆ Minimum 3.0 high school grade point average.
- ◆ Minimum average ACT composite score of 20 or SAT composite score of 1020.
- ◆ Complete student teaching in home county if possible.
- ◆ Must obtain recommendation from school superintendent or designee (Principal/Counselor).
- ◆ Must reside in GSC campus housing per GSC guidelines.

Bachelor of Arts degree in Education with a major in:

- Biological Science (9-Adult)
- Chemistry (9-Adult)
- Early Education (PreK-K)
- Elementary Education (K-6)
- English Education (5-9) or (5-Adult)
- General Math - Algebra I (5-9)
- General Science (5-9) or (5-Adult)
- Music Education (PreK-Adult)
- Mathematics (5-Adult)
- Social Studies Education (5-9) or (5-Adult)
- Special Education Multi-Categorical (K-6)

SCHOLARSHIP CONTINUANCE

- ◆ Continue successful progression within GSC’s education courses with a 3.0 overall and program-specific GPA.
- ◆ Participate in all Praxis preparation programs and pass Praxis basic skills and content-area exams.
- ◆ Participate in community service in the home county as outlined by GSC’s Department of Education.
- ◆ Receive continued recommendation, each semester, by the Department of Education.

*Institutional Scholarship Awards cannot exceed full tuition and fees. Scholarship is competitive. A maximum number of 35 students per year are accepted into the program. Scholarships can be awarded for a maximum of eight semesters.

APPLY ONLINE ► www.glenville.edu/apply

The mission of Glenville State College’s Home Grown Initiative Scholarship is to identify and recruit high school students interested in teaching, particularly those interested in subject areas most in-demand, to enhance progression, retention, and graduation of enrolled teacher candidates; and to enhance new teacher retention through a coordinated college and district mentoring program.