

Paws to Read

An Animal-Assisted Reading Program

1st & 3rd Saturdays • 11am—12pm • Outdoor Patio

Presented by San Diego Love on a Leash, a volunteer pet therapy group, this free reading program is designed for children grades K-6.

Children have the opportunity to meet the dogs and read their favorite stories to them. This reading program has been shown to improved the reading skills of children who might otherwise be intimidated by reading in front of adults or age peers.
