Questions and Answers

Q: There is more than one school listed in the dropdown list of neighborhood schools. Which one should I choose?

A: Please review the schools that are available in the dropdown either by contacting the schools directly or visiting their website. You may then choose the school you prefer. The following guidelines apply:

- You may see multiple schools listed in the dropdown menu, if the home address you entered falls within an Optional Area. In the case of Optional Area, if you choose School X, then later decide you would like your child to attend School Y, you may do so if the student has not yet attended School X. Once the student has begun attending one of the optional area schools, he or she is not permitted to switch to the other school, per district procedure. Please visit this webpage for further information on Optional Areas: http://www.sandi.net/page/1189.

- You may see two middle schools listed in the dropdown menu, if the home address you entered falls within the shared boundary of DePortola and Farb middle schools. Your 6th-8th grade student may attend either DePortola or Farb, space permitting. Please contact both schools or visit their websites to learn about them and then choose the school you prefer.

- You may see multiple schools listed in the dropdown menu, if the grades offered by the schools overlap. For example, a K-8 may overlap with a 6th-8th middle school, or a K-6 may overlap with 6th grade at a middle school. Please contact both schools or visit their websites to learn about them and then choose the school you prefer.

Q: The dropdown list of neighborhood schools shows a Complex. What is that and what does it mean for my student? Or, my student wishes to enroll at San Diego International Studies (or any other specific small themed school), but the neighborhood dropdown menu only lists San Diego High Complex.

A: You will see Complex if your neighborhood high school is either Kearny or San Diego. These two high schools are each composed of four small themed schools on the same campus, which together comprise the Complex. Your student will be able to select the small themed school of interest when you go in to the school to complete enrollment, space permitting. Please visit the schools’ websites to learn about the themed schools available at each location.
