Item	Description/Actions	Meeting Summary
		b. ELAC focus will be on attendance, we will have new students attending in person beginning in January and we will not be completing the process of becoming a community school. Attendance schoolwide-262 students enrolled, 17-30 tardies per day. YTD 87.6% are at school on time; our goal is 92% or more students in class on time. Over 76 absences in one week. EL 62 enrolled, 7 are frequently tardy, 17 were absent last week. YTD 86.5% at school on time; our goal is 92% or more EL students in class on time. 33% could be soon considered about chronically absent/tardy 10% or more of the year. Supports/Notes – phone calls, attendance clerk talking to parents, guidance assistant, SDSU team, school counselor working with attendance groups, some students still working with covid concerns. Please note that ill parents are not considered an excused absence. How can we encourage our students to be on time? Awards from teachers and staff encouraging students from being on time. Consider body in the seat incentive extra 5 minutes of recess collectively for a certain percentage per class. Shout outs to classrooms with the 92% of students in class on time. Put on a spread sheet by Friday, ready for announcements on Monday.
6. Data Review a. School Data Presentation	Informational: Dr. Jenkins-Martin, Principal	a. PLC Data Presentation: Staff will present writing pieces from students and discuss students as writers. Staff will also implement the Three Read Protocol – looking at math stories.
