African American data shared: SBAC data, D and F data, suspension data, graduation rate. This data will be monitored during the 2019/2020 and used to make informed decisions to support our African American subgroup as well as other subgroups. ● Dr. Larkin reviewed the SPSA and explained how the SPSA goals are aligned to our budgeted Title I monies. There is approximately $141,000 left to spend in the 2019-2020 school year. Larkin also reviewed the SIX goals in the SPSA which are connected to the CA Healthy Kids Survey, SBAC, D and F data, etc.. Goals are targeted with strategies and money to support each strategy. Morse's budget must align with SPSA. New goal areas in SPSA focus on school's creating safe, collaborative, and inclusive environments and a focus on improving outcomes for our students with disabilities. The
