Circle the pumpkin on the right.

Circle the candle on the left.

Circle the apple on the left.

Circle the chair on the right.

Tip for parents: Use the terms “right” and “left” whenever possible to reinforce those concepts. For example, tell your child to give you his right arm when getting dressed instead of simply pulling his arm through a sleeve.

Why keep the fun all to yourself? Please feel free to share this worksheet with friends.

© www.schoolsparks.com, so please don’t post on another website or distribute commercially.