Good Morning Standley Staff and Students, please rise for the Pledge of Allegiance. Put your right hand over your heart. (Pause) Ready, begin: I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic, for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Thank you, you may be seated.

Student Announcements

Standley's 8th Annual 5 on 5 Basketball Tournament continues tomorrow and will conclude Friday with our preliminary round. Playoffs will start next Tuesday, which will be single elimination! Thank you to all that have participated, it's been a lot of fun!

Some people will tell you that vaping is not so bad, because it's less dangerous than smoking. That's like saying a hurricane is less dangerous than a tornado...it's still very dangerous! The truth is, teens who vape are much more likely to start smoking than teens who don't...so just don't! Sock it to Drugs tomorrow by wearing your wackiest socks. That's right....wear your wacky socks and sock it to drugs!

The Elks is opening a contest to have a video, essay or a poster that shows this year's theme is:

"One pill can kill". The essay must be 250 words or less write on 8 ½ by 11 inch paper. It must be original and grammatically correct. Typed or printed. If you want more information, come to the counseling center. Posters and videos are encouraged with the anti-drug theme.

The first prize is $400 and second prize is $300 and third is $200.

There is also a contest to come up with next years Red Ribbon Theme. The website is www.redribbon.org/theme/contest The winners will receive prizes and $500 worth of Red Ribbon themed prizes.

Thank you from the counselors

Have a Willing to stay drug-free Wednesday!
