Good Morning Standley Staff and Students, please rise for the Pledge of Allegiance. Put your right hand over your heart. (Pause) Ready, begin: I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic, for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Thank you, you may be seated.

Student Announcements

Standley's 8th Annual 5 on 5 Basketball Tournament continues today and will conclude tomorrow with our preliminary round. Playoffs will start next Tuesday, which will be single elimination! Thank you to all that have participated, it's been a lot of fun!

The Elks is opening a contest to have a video, essay or a poster that shows this year's theme is:

"One pill can kill". The essay must be 250 words or less write on 8 ½ by 11 inch paper. It must be original and grammatically correct. Typed or printed. If you want more information, come to the counseling center. Posters and videos are encouraged with the anti-drug theme.

The first prize is $400 and second prize is $300 and third is $200.

There is also a contest to come up with next years Red Ribbon Theme. The website is www.redribbon.org/theme/contest The winners will receive prizes and $500 worth of Red Ribbon themed prizes.

Thank you from the counselors

Today the book club will meet during 2nd period. If you have advisory during second lunch it is your responsibility to go to class FIRST and ask permission to attend the book club meeting. This is the one time you're welcome to eat your lunch in the library. Lastly, the library will be closed to host the book club during 2nd lunch today.

Tomorrow is the last Red Ribbon Week spirit day. Celebrate your commitment to a drug-free life by wearing your pajamas to school. That's right; everybody's favorite spirit day – P.J. Day tomorrow!

Attention ASB students: if you are on the Elementary School Tour team you will meet in the counseling office immediately after first period ends. Do not go to second period; go directly to the counseling office.

Have a Thematic Thursday!
