Attention Standley Students! Are you a good listener? Do you like to help friends? Standley has a new Peer Mediation Program. Mediate means to help people in conflict find a solution. In the Peer Mediation Program, you will be trained to mentor your peers. You will also assist students with conflict resolution and serve as mentors for students experiencing problems in school. Peer Mediators will also provide community and school resources to students who may need assistance. If you are interested you will need to complete an application and submit the application by Friday, 9/16/22. You can pick-up an application from Ms. Frank in Room 306. If you have any questions please see Ms. Frank in Room 306.

Good morning performing artists! Standley Drama Club will begin meeting today during second lunch in room 609. If you have advisory during second lunch and wish to attend the club meeting, see Mr. Carroll in 609 for a pass. See you at Lunch for Drama Club!

In remembrance of the 9-11 tragedy, tomorrow will be Patriot Day at Standley Middle. Wear your red, white, and blue colors or your patriotic gear for an all-around U-S-A kind of day. Remember, celebrating your own country does not mean putting down others, so stay classy, Seahawks! Patriot Day tomorrow!

Also tomorrow will be Standley's Club rush event. Visit tables set out during both lunches to see some of the fantastic clubs here at Standley. Sign up and get involved. Clubs make school more fun!

We need YOU!! Yearbook is looking for YOU!! We have some spots open in Yearbook and would love to have you part of our team! Joining the yearbook staff provides an all-encompassing view of school life. Staffers meet new students, witness unique classroom activities, and see behind the scenes activities of clubs, games and events—aspects of school life not every student observes.

Colleges appreciate an applicant with a diverse resume and yearbook shows school and community involvement. Being an editor-in-chief or section editor is even more impressive! Come see Mrs. Botts & the Yearbook Committee in room 513 for more details!

No Place for Hate Committee will meet next week Thursday, September 15 during second lunch. Location to be determined next week. Please check your invites to the new google classroom for No Place for Hate and let me know if you received the invite. Looking forward to a great year!
