

CYT

The Office of Children and Youth in Transition

A Successful Partnership Since 2009

- 6 DoDEA Grants Awarded to San Diego Unified School District
- $11.8 Million Received in Grant Funds
- 19 Military Impacted Schools Benefited

- Partner with Military Family Collaborative
- Quarterly meetings with School Liaison Officers
- Military Family Life Counselors (MFLC) located at 21 Schools

Operation Student Success (OSS)	Operation Student Achievement (OSA)	Operation World Language (OWL)	Operation Learn and Thrive (OLT)	Operation Special Education Achievement (OSEA)	Operation Aim High (OAH)
2009-2013 $2.5 Million	2010-2013 $2.5 Million	2012-2015 $503 Thousand	2013-2016 $2.5 Million	2014-2018 $1 Million	2015-2020 $ 1.5 Million
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On site tutoring In math • Increased parent involvement • iHigh Virtual Academy summer program • Math boot Camp and Algebra Academy for students • Increased counseling and emotional supports for students 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improved youth resiliency through a series of Professional Development trainings in AVID • Implemented successful Math and Science enrichment programs • Collaborate with Reuben H. Fleet Science Center • Tutoring in Math and Science • Family Science nights 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Successful implementation of German cultural and language programs at Cabrillo Elementary • Successful implementation of Mandarin cultural and language program at Dewey • Increase teacher capacity- attendance at State and National world language conferences. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increase in healthy eating choices through nutritional education • Successful Implementation on online UDL Professional Development • Researched based literacy software purchased for 5 elementary schools • School Gardens installed at 5 elementary schools 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Implementation of Professional Development Training for UDL, Autism and Teaching Reading Courses • Implementation of Arts for Grades 3 and 5 to engage students academically and socially. • Provide Effective Reading and Writing Interventions for Special Needs 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improve college readiness for military dependent students through AVID implementation. • Summer Robotics and STEM curriculum with Project Lead the Way • Social Emotional supports (Parent and Teacher Workshops) for transitioning military families.

The Office of Children and Youth and Transition coordinates an Annual Military Appreciation and Enrollment Event. Last summer it was attended by 1,036 military family members. 82 children were immunized and 185 students were enrolled in school.

