POLICY SECTION 510: Employee Participation in Community Activities

POLICY

The Ahkwesahsne Mohawk Board of Education encourages employees to take an active part in various community functions. It is through informal interaction that staff and parents can establish a relationship and a basis for a meaningful dialogue about students and the educational program. The development of a trusting relationship based on formal school contacts and informal community activities will assist in the development of strong partnerships between employees and parents.
