Course Description

This course is designed to be an excellent opportunity for students to not only complete work but to collaborate with peers and teachers on methods to improve achievement. Each class period will be broken into parts consisting of a lesson, a TAC check for missing work, a planner check, organization of work, and time to complete assignments. Study Skills will also give students an opportunity to ask questions about assignments.

Goals for Student Learning

Students are expected to learn the 7 Habits of a Highly Effective Teen. More importantly, students are expected to apply these habits in order to obtain academic goals.

Textbook and Materials

Students are expected to bring their student planner as well as their notebooks from each course. Students should also bring any classwork and/or homework which needs to be completed.

Course Outline

Throughout the school year we will be focusing on habits that will lead to student success. Each class will focus on elements of these habits as well as devoting time to organizing, completing school work, and building academic routines.

Absent Work Policy

All assignments should be submitted on time. Students will be given the number of class periods equal to the number of lawful class periods absent to turn in completed make up assignments without penalty.

Late Work Policy

All assignments should be submitted on time in order to earn full credit. Any assignment, (product, process, or practice) will be allowed to be turned in late for one letter grade deduction from the grade a student earns on the assignment. In order to earn credit for late assignments, students must submit assignments by the end of the day on Wednesday (except for the last week of the quarter) following the designated HAC update. Students are only able to submit assignments that have an established due date within the grading window before the designated HAC update. Assignment that are turned in for late credit will be identified by a footnote in HAC to include a statement about the deduction of a letter grade due to the lateness of the assignment.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is taking responsibility for the quality and completion of one's own work. Academic dishonesty is taking someone else's work and claiming it as one's own. Students at Bel Air High School are responsible for knowing what is considered to be Academic Dishonesty and the subsequent consequences. More information can be found in the BAHS Student Planner.

Classroom Rules and Procedures

- ❖ Be respectful to others.
- ❖ Bring student planner daily.
- ❖ Bring course materials, including all work to be completed, daily.
- ❖ Be honest with yourself and Ms. Vega regarding your academic and behavioral progress

Cell Phone Policy

- Students will place their cellphones in a teacher designated area as they enter each classroom. Teachers will review with students the specific location for each room. The phones will remain in the teacher designated area unless teachers explicitly tell students to take out the phones for instructional use.
- Cellphones will remain in the teacher designated area during bathroom visits, assemblies and trips to the nurse/counseling office/main office.
- Cellphones will be retrieved from the teacher designated area at the end of class at the direction of the teacher.
- School-appropriate cellphone use is permitted during class changes and lunch. Students are not permitted to make phone calls during school hours.
- If the cell phone policy is violated, it is a referable offense.

Given the nature of this class, I have more opportunity than your student's other teachers to work one-on-one with any skills/behaviors that aren't necessarily academic (for example: binder organization, making priority lists for all coursework, etc.).

Please list anything specific you would like me to be aware of and/or work on with your student this year. Please also feel free to list any general concerns or questions!
